Fall POST 2023

Oh my gourd, Penny! That has to be the biggest pumpkin I've ever seen!

Isn't it pawesome, Bill?

Are you going to carve it?

Nope!

Are you going to turn it into pie?

Nope!

Are you going to go pumpkin bowling with it?

Great idea, but nope!

I give up, then. Why do you need such a big pumpkin?

So that WE have plenty of room to decorate it together! It's always more fun to do things with you, Bill!

Awesome! And afterwards we can go together to deposit money into our savings account at DFCU Financial and pick up our newest treat!

Go to the next page to help Penny and Bill decorate their pumpkin while staying within their budget.

the Pumpkin Plan worksheet

Bill and Penny have $7 to spend decorating their pumpkin. Help them shop. Then use your choices to decorate your own pumpkin using crayons, markers, or colored pencils.

Plan how you will spend your $7 by adding up the prices of each piece.

PUMPKIN PUN-ALOOZA

I'm a big fan of puns! Check out these awesome pumpkin puns that you can share with your friends and family for some fun!

NEW WORD: What is a pun? A pun is a type of joke that makes a play on words. It usually involves using a word that sounds similar to another word, but has a different meaning, to create a funny phrase. For example, "Why did the scarecrow win an award? Because he was outstanding in his field!"

What do you call an athletic pumpkin?

A jock o' lantern

Good one!

What did the pumpkin say to the pumpkin carver?

Cut it out

Really?

How do you repair a broken jack o' lantern?

Use a pumpkin patch

Groan

What do you call a pumpkin that works at the beach?

A life gourd

Ugh!

Why do gourds gossip?

To give them pumpkin to talk about

I love it!

What's a jack-o'-lantern's favorite holiday?

Hollow-ween

Hilarious!

What did the pumpkin say after Thanksgiving?

Good-pie, everyone

Oh, no!

Why do jack-o'-lanterns sit on people's porches?

They don't have the guts to knock on the door!

Ha!

A Guide for Teaching Kids About Money

Building financial literacy in children is important to set them up for a successful future. One fun way to do this is through poems and songs, which can help kids learn about counting and money in an enjoyable way. With autumn here, pumpkins are a hot topic. Here is a fun counting poem to act out with your children.

FIVE LITTLE PUMPKINS SITTING ON A GATE

Five little pumpkins sitting on a gate,
The first one said, "Oh my, it's getting late,"
The second one said, "There's a chill in the air,"
The third one said, "But we don't care,"
The fourth one said, "We're ready for some fun,"
The fifth one said, "Let's run, run, run,"
So "woo" went the wind, and out went the lights,
And the five little pumpkins rolled out of sight.

I HAVE A SHINY PENNY

I have a shiny penny.
Just one little cent.
Where did I put my little coin?
Into my bank it went.

I have a shiny penny.
That makes two coins for me.
If I find another penny,
I'll count them, 1, 2, 3.

I now have two more pennies.
How many does that make?
I can trade my five pennies with you.
If you have a nickel I can take!

Deposit $5 in your account and receive this cool temporary tattoo of Bill and Penny!
