

PUPPY

Spring POST 2024

Bill, why are you being so quiet?

Shhh ... I am listening for the roar.

Roar? What roar?

The lion's roar! Buck told me that March comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb.

Oh, Bill! It's just something people say. It means that March can start with wild weather, but gets nicer later.

So, there's no real lion?

Nope!

Yay! It's a safe and sunny spring day, so let's go to the farmer's market. And the only crazy cat around here is Buck.

Phew. That means it's safe to go to DFCU Financial to withdraw some money from my savings account.

Hey there, buddies! Bill and Penny have a budget for their trip to the farmer's market. Turn the page to help them make smart choices and spend their money wisely. Remember, it's all about having fun while staying on budget.

A-MAZE-ING FARMER'S MARKET ADVENTURE

Hey there, super shopper. Bill and Penny are on a fun trip to the farmer's market, and they need your help. They have a budget of $25 to spend. Wowza!

Here's how to play:

- Start at the Entrance: Help Bill and Penny navigate through the maze.
- Shop: As you go, you'll see numbers. These are the prices of cool things they can buy!

- Stay on Budget: Make sure the total of all the numbers you cross doesn't go over $25. Keep track as you go.
- Exit: Once you've shopped and stayed on budget, guide Bill and Penny to the exit of the maze.

Remember, it's okay if they don't spend all $25, but they can't spend more than that. Ready to help them shop smart and have fun? Let's go!

BUCK'S SPRING COLORING PAGE

Hey there, buddies! Have you ever heard that March comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb? That means March can start all wild and roar-y, just like a lion!

Guess what? I'm dressing up as a lion! Can you help bring my lion look to life by coloring me in?

But that's not all! March also ends softly and gently, just like a cuddly lamb.

Here's a fun challenge – grab your crayons and draw your face on this super cute lamb costume to celebrate Spring with me! Ready, set, color!

A Guide for Teaching Kids About Money

Tips for Teaching Kids About Money (Without the Yawns)

Hey parents, diving into the world of finances with your kids doesn't have to be a snooze-fest! Here are some fun ways to get them thinking about money:

Budgeting with Activities: Kick things off with engaging activities that teach budgeting. Our "A-maze-ing Farmer's Market Adventure" is a perfect start, showing them the ropes of sticking to a budget.

Real-Life Shopping: Head to a farmer's market for hands-on experiences. Give them a little spending money and guide them in picking out items, teaching them to weigh their choices and make cost-based decisions.

Using Familiar Sayings: Old sayings can be a fun way to introduce money concepts:

- "A penny saved is a penny earned" – highlights the value of saving.
- "Don't put all your eggs in one basket" – emphasizes the importance of diversifying investments.
- "Money doesn't grow on trees" – a classic reminder about the value of money and the effort it takes to earn it.

By sneaking financial lessons into everyday chats and activities, you're setting up your child for a future filled with smart money moves.
